

DEAN'S SCIENCE EDUCATION COMMENDATION

CONDITIONS OF AWARD

1. INTRODUCTION AND RECOGNITION

Each semester after the finalisation of grades, a list of students whose outstanding academic achievement in that semester warrants recognition, shall be approved by the Deputy Dean (Science) Education.

Students whose names appear on the list shall receive an award known as the Dean's Science Education Commendation.

Awardees will receive a letter of commendation from the Deputy Dean (Science) Education. There is no monetary award.

2. ELIGIBILITY

The award is available each semester to an ANU student who:

- (a) is enrolled on a full-time basis in an undergraduate degree program within the ANU Colleges of Science, Health and Medicine.
- (b) has achieved a High Distinction at the level of 90% or higher in all Science courses undertaken in the relevant semester; and
- (c) 50% or more of the enrolment is in courses offered by the Colleges of Science, Health and Medicine; and
- (d) the courses are not contributing towards an Honours specialisation

3. SELECTION AND CONSTRAINTS

A student is eligible to be considered for the Dean's Science Education Commendation in every semester of their enrolment in an undergraduate degree program within the Colleges of Science, Health and Medicine.

There is no limit to the number of students who may be awarded the Dean's Science Education Commendation in any semester.

If, in any year, no student is deemed to have met the requirements specified above, then no Dean's Science Education Commendations will be made for that Semester.

4. REVIEW OF AWARD

The award will be reviewed:

- (a) if any eligibility requirements are to be amended
- (b) after 3 years

whichever is earliest.
